Graph of the Week

May _____, 2017

Analyze the graphs below and write a reflection on what you think the graphs are communicating to you. To guide you with your response, start with some observations.

- What is the topic of the graph?
- What does the x-axis represent? What does the y-axis represent?
- What are some observations that you can make based on the graph?
- What do you foresee happening about 5 years from now?

Questions to ask when reading graphs:

- Is there an upward or downward trend?
- Are there any sudden spikes in the graph?
- What is being compared in the graph?
- What prediction can I make for the future?
- What inferences can I make about the graph?

FUN FACTS	More than 800 species of plants, which are native to 40 different countries, grow at the Disneyland Resort.	Knott's is one of the only theme parks to make its own churros, which are available at Ghost Town's Churro Factory.	More than 30,000 Lego models are throughout the resort and are created out of more than 60 million bricks.	SeaWorld is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year, having opened in March 1964 at Mission Bay.	Throughout the spring, Batman the Ride and Colossus have been running backward.	There are 27 different Minions located throughout Super Silly Fun Land.	The studio also hosts a speaker series. Past speakers have included car customizer George Barris, makeup artist Michael Westmore.
WHAT'S NEW	A "Frozen" float will be added to Disneyland's Mickey's Soundsational Parade starting in mid-June.	Dining plans valid at six in-park restaurants; $29.99 for all day, $13.99 for single meal.	Legends of Chima Water Park opened. "The Lego Movie" set is on display.	"Shamu's Celebration: Light Up The Night" orca show debuts in June.	From Nov. 28 to Jan. 4, the park will have its first "Holiday in the Park" event.	The 3D animation ride Despicable Me Minion Mayhem is open next to Super Silly Fun Land play zone.	New props and costumes are added to displays often. Recent additions include items from "Veronica Mars," "300" and "Gravity."
